If you want to reduce your spending and you find an item or category that you have a problem with, you can set it up so you will only see it at the end of your financial day and not until the next month. Once you set your budget, you will no longer have that temptation. Another great feature is the ability to keep track of all of your bills. This way, you can see all of your bills at once and decide what you would like to pay.

You can set the date range, the amount you want to pay, and even set a recurring monthly schedule for these payments.
